ARTS AND BEHAVIORAL SCIENCES

DATA RESOURCES PROGRAM: ANALYSIS OF EXISTING DATA • U.S. DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE
Supports secondary analysis that enhances understanding of crime and informs criminal justice policy and practice in the U.S. Research proposals should seek either to replicate original findings or, preferably, extend research by testing new hypotheses with existing data. NIJ will give preference to research that asks compelling crime and justice questions rather than research that merely furthers statistical methods or technical refinement of data sets. See http://www.ojp.usdoj.gov/nij/funding/current.htm for details.
Application Deadline: June 30, 2013

JUSFC GRANT PROGRAMS • JAPAN-UNITED STATES FRIENDSHIP COMMISSION
Supports reciprocal research programs between the U.S. and Japan in support of the continuation of close friendship and cooperation. Awards will be made on the basis of academic or professional excellence evaluated in relation to national and cultural needs for certain professional fields; existing gaps in understanding; and availability or lack of other sources of support. Deadline is July 1 annually. Other programs available. See http://www.jusfc.gov/grant_program/ for details.
Application Deadline: July 1, 2013

KLUGE FELLOWSHIPS • THE LIBRARY OF CONGRESS
Allows qualified scholars to conduct research in the Kluge Center using the Library of Congress collections and resources for up to 12 months. Stipend of $4,200/month for residential research at the Library. Humanistic and social science research that makes use of the Library's collections is strongly encouraged. Eligible applicants are scholars who have received a terminal advanced degree within the past seven years in the humanities, social sciences or a professional field such as architecture or law. Up to 10 awards are made each year. See http://www.loc.gov/loc/kluge/fellowships/kluge.html for details.
Application Deadline: July 15, 2013

LINGUISTICS • NATIONAL SCIENCE FOUNDATION
Supports basic science in the domain of human language, encompassing investigations of the grammatical properties of individual human languages and of natural language in general. Topics of interest include syntactic, semantic, morphological, phonetic, and phonological properties of individual languages and of language in general, and investigation of linguistic questions that are interdisciplinary in nature. Annual target dates are 1/15 and 7/15. See http://www.nsf.gov/funding/pgm_summ.jsp?pims_id=5408 for details.
Application Deadline: July 15, 2013

SOCIAL PSYCHOLOGY • NATIONAL SCIENCE FOUNDATION
Supports basic research on human social behavior, including cultural differences and development over the life span. Among the many research topics supported are attitude formation and change, social cognition, personality processes, interpersonal relations, group processes, the self, emotion, social comparison and social influence, the social psychology of health, and the psychophysiological correlates of social behavior. Annual target dates are 1/15 and 7/15. See http://www.nsf.gov/funding/pgm_summ.jsp?pims_id=5712 for details.
Application Deadline: July 15, 2013

HUMANITIES COLLECTIONS AND REFERENCE RESOURCES • NATIONAL ENDOWMENT FOR THE HUMANITIES
Grants support projects that address major challenges in preserving/providing intellectual access to humanities resources. NEH encourages digital projects that codify, unite, integrate, or aggregate humanities collections and resources. Applicants may also propose projects to develop a reference work or tool. Projects that integrate tools and reference works with digital collections to provide context to humanities materials and to facilitate discovery are also encouraged. Awards are for three years and are up to $350,000. See http://www.neh.gov/grants/preservation/humanities-collections-and-reference-resources for details.

BUSINESS MANAGEMENT

ASSETS FOR INDEPENDENCE DEMONSTRATION PROGRAM (ACF)
ADMINISTRATION FOR CHILDREN AND FAMILIES

ACF is requesting applications for grants to administer projects for the national Assets for Independence (AFI) demonstration of the use and impact of Individual Development Accounts (IDAs) and related services. Grantees will provide an array of supports and services to enable individuals and families with low incomes to become more economically self-sufficient for the long-term. A primary feature of each AFI project is that project participants are given access to special matched savings accounts called Individual Development Accounts (IDA). Grantees also ensure that participants have access to financial literacy education and coaching such as training on money management and consumer issues. Grant recipients must finance the projects with a non-Federal cash amount at least equal to the Federal AFI grant amount. See http://www.acf.hhs.gov/grants/open/foa/view/HHS-2011-ACF-OCS-EI-0137 for details.

SMALL GRANTS PROGRAM IN BEHAVIORAL ECONOMICS • SAGE (RUSSELL) FOUNDATION

The Russell Sage Behavioral Economics Roundtable supports a small grants research program to support high-quality research in behavioral economics and to encourage young investigators to enter this developing field. There are no limitations on the disciplinary background of the principal investigator, and the proposed research may address any economic topic. Interdisciplinary efforts are welcome. The maximum budget is $7,500. Representative categories of expenditures include acquisition of data, the purchase of data sets, research assistance (but not including payment to any researchers who will be co-authors on the project), payment to subjects in experiments, miscellaneous expenses (such as xerography, telephone, postage). No funds will be granted for researchers' time. No more than $500 can be allocated to miscellaneous expenses. No funds can be spent on computer hardware or software. See http://www.russellsage.org for details.

RESEARCH GRANTS • DELTA PI EPSILON RESEARCH FOUNDATION, INC.

Provides for the advancement of research in business education, which shall include but not be limited to office education, accounting, information processing, distributive/marketing education, and basic business education, and to support such research through grants. Toward this end, the Foundation will fund projects designed to have an impact on business education, encourage creative research from people not yet established as researchers, and invite researchers in other fields of study to contribute their expertise to the field of business education. The Foundation will support studies that are descriptive (survey as well as ex post facto), experimental, qualitative, and developmental. The Foundation will not support master thesis or doctoral dissertation research. See http://www.dpe.org/forms.htm for details.

Application Deadline: Ongoing

RESEARCH GRANT PROGRAM • AMERICAN TAX POLICY INSTITUTE (ATPI)

ATPI is pleased to request research proposals to further scholarship about tax policy. ATPI is seeking proposals for significant projects on specific topics that will offer scholars, experts, practitioners, opinion leaders, and policymakers in-depth and ground-breaking thinking about critical tax policy issues. The organization particularly wishes to cultivate projects that allow experts from different disciplines to interact. ATPI is seeking proposals for it to sponsor one- or two-day conferences on topics that will offer scholars, experts, practitioners, opinion leaders, and policymakers an in-depth and ground-breaking analysis of critical tax policy issues. Such conferences should normally involve new papers that are prepared and discussed by experts from the economics, accounting and legal fields, and should give experts in the different fields the opportunity to interact. In the past, ATPI has provided grants, generally of $10,000 to $25,000, to individual authors of papers on tax policy. See http://www.americantaxpolicyinstitute.org/proposeconference.php for details.

EDUCATION POLICY FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM • INSTITUTE FOR EDUCATIONAL LEADERSHIP

The Education Policy Fellowship Program (EPFP) is a ten-month in-service professional development program for emerging and mid-level leaders. Each site develops a program tailored to local policy culture, conditions, and needs. Three program strands - leadership, public policy, and professional networking - organize the learning in EPFP. Each strand contains concepts, materials, and tools that sites can implement in a manner designed to fit local circumstances. Each site offers a different emphasis and mix of activities to implement each program strand. Each fellow's sponsor pays the program fee plus travel costs associated with the national meeting and provides the release time necessary for participation in all program activities. See https://epfp.site-ym.com/?page=MI for details.

Artists Portray Artists: 20th Century Selections From the Kresge Art Museum • FY 10
Marilyn Wheaton, Director of the Marshall M. Fredericks Sculpture Museum, was awarded $2,000 from Consumer’s Energy for the Artists Portray Artists exhibition. This exhibition was hosted by the Museum from October 1, 2010 through January 30, 2011, and explored the theme of artists representing themselves or other artists. This exhibition was estimated to reach 3,500 people during its thirteen-week run. The overall goal of this project was to engage and connect audiences to periods of art and artists from around the world, and increase community access to quality arts and cultural resources.

Centuries, 3 Decades, 28 Works by Charles McGee Exhibition • FY 10
Marilyn Wheaton, Director of the Marshall M. Fredericks Sculpture Museum, received $5,000 from the Midland Area Community Foundation to support the Charles McGee Exhibition, an opportunity to exhibit artwork by a Michigan Sculptor. The 2 Centuries, 3 Decades, 28 Works by Charles McGee exhibition was hosted by the museum from June 4, 2011 through September 24, 2011. The objective of this project was to bring a significant Michigan artist and his artwork to the Great Lakes Bay Region for residents to experience, learn from and get to know on a personal level. The exhibition was visited by 3,147 people, including 228 who heard the gallery talks, given by Mr. McGee to Saginaw, Midland, and Bay County high school students, SVSU students and faculty, and the general public.

Marshall M. Fredericks Sculpture Museum Archivist Funding • FY 11
Marilyn Wheaton, Director of the Marshall M. Fredericks Sculpture Museum, was awarded $5,000 from the Alden and Vada Dow Family Foundations for operational support. The purpose of this grant was to provide funding to maintain a full-time archivist who acts as a steward of Marshall Fredericks’ archives.

SABBATICAL
Application Deadline: September 10, 2013
All sabbatical proposals are due in the Office of the Vice President for Academic Affairs by 4:30 p.m., September 10, 2012. The applicant's P.P.C. files must be updated and in his/her academic dean's office by the same deadline. It is the faculty applicant's responsibility to see that the signatures of their department chairperson and the dean are secured and also to see that the application is delivered by the deadline. Any application NOT RECEIVED by this deadline will be rejected. Individual Evaluation Reports (IERS) are not required for sabbatical leave applications.

RUTH AND TED BRAUN FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM—http://www.svsu.edu/sponsoredprograms/internalgrants/
Application Deadline: September 15, 2013
The Saginaw Community Foundation will award annual fellowships to two faculty/staff for three-year appointments starting January 1st following the award announcement. Each fellow will receive supporting grants totaling $37,500 ($12,500 per year) during the three year term to recognize and further their scholarly or professional activities. Braun Fellows will be expected to produce a body of professional or academic work for publication or presentation during or at the conclusion of the Fellowship term.

Recipients will be selected based on the following criteria: Significant record of publication or other scholarly or professional accomplishments; Evidence of continued and sustained achievement in teaching and service to students; Evidence of potential for future scholarly or professional growth; Quality of ideas and likelihood of successful completion of the project proposed for fellowship support; Potential benefits to SVSU from the proposed project; Clarity of the proposal.

Funding: Funds may be used for research expenses, equipment, travel, staff support, release from regular duties, undergraduate and graduate student support, collaboration with faculty from other institutions, and other related support. Expenditures will be consistent with the applicant’s Fellowship application and proposal and subject to approval by the University.
